

"Sara and Me"

Have at last finished our invoice of stock, and from the results, have concluded that the folks are inclined to indulge our whims awhile longer, and let us continue to "keep store" at the Bazaar. We are "much obliged," of course, for this, and propose to show that we are, in the coming year, by every means in our power. Just now we can mention a few things that ought to, and will, interest the money-saving buyer.

Our Cloak trade has been splendid, and for nice-fitting, stylish Wraps, none have excelled the Bazaar Cloaks, but it is not in keeping with our notions to risk carrying any of these goods over from one season to another, so that, still having a few of the best styles, we can give any one in need of a Cloak the greatest bargain ever offered in this line of goods. We mean to

SELL EVERY CLOAK WE NOW HAVE

And it will be the part of wisdom for you to investigate the situation before deciding not to buy.

Have you all the Blankets you need? If not, and you will look through the few we have left from our big Blanket sales, you'll wonder you've not bought long before this. Besides these items that "Sara and Me" are sure you will find good values in every sense of the word, we have some other "Specialties" to call your notice to in the way of

WOOLEN REMNANTS

Left from our big Dress Goods trade—all go at one-half their value, and are a big lot to one needing inexpensive but nice Dresses for children. See these remnants.

All our heavy Shawls must likewise go. If you ever expect to need a Shawl, now is the time to buy. Just as it is the time to get a bargain in Boots—big Boots and little Boots at prices to startle anybody except a regular Bazaar customer, who never is startled at anything "Sara and Me" do in the way of handing out big bargains. They naturally expect it. We expect to have a good deal of amusement out of these offers we're making preparatory to buying a spring stock—something like the fun we've been having in our Millinery Department in the past ten days—that will continue, of course, as long as Sara gets up such stylish Hats at the ridiculously low figures she does. No one need go hatless if they'll note the prices and styles given by "Sara and Me." 'Tis funny how we manage it! Yes, that's what they all say, but that's the reason you can afford to buy of us. We'll try to attend to the "managing," and if we fail to—why, you'll get the benefits and bargains anyway, and that's what you want of

The second quarterly meeting for the Hartford Circuit will be held at the Methodist Church in Hartford next Wednesday.

T. S. Duke's fine greyhound died last Wednesday night. He also lost a horse the same night, both the horse and dog died of lung fever.

The public school taught by A. A. Brown closed Friday. He will likely teach a spring term, beginning Monday week. One family in the district subscribed as much as $100. This speaks well for Mr. Brown's teaching.

R. P. Bennett and Miss Sabra Caloway were married at the C. P. Church at Beas last Sunday evening at 6 o'clock, Rev. B. F. Winkler officiating.

Go to Sullenger & Barnett's for anything you may need in the general grocery line. They sell goods at strictly 10 per cent. profit. Motto: "Live and let live."

Carson & Morton is the place to go to get anything you may need in the general and fancy grocery line. Goods sold as cheap as the cheapest. Give them a call and be convinced.

All out for Sullenger & Barnett's for anything you may need in the fancy and general grocery line. A complete new, fresh stock constantly on hand. All goods go at strictly 10 per cent. profit.

Walter Mitchell, who was adjudged a lunatic last week and sent to Hopkinsville, was not accepted by the authorities there, owing to the crowded condition of the asylum. He was brought back home.

Mr. L. F. Werner and Mrs. Sarah J. Patton were quietly married at the residence of Mrs. Patton yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, Rev. E. M. Crowe officiating. They left for Louisville immediately after the ceremony.

James Lard and Miss Iza Travis were married Friday afternoon at three o'clock at the home of the bride's father Mr. Isaac Travis, three miles east of Hartford. Rev. G. J. Bean spoke the words that tied the knot.

Sullenger & Barnett will pay the highest market price for all kinds of country produce and in turn will sell you any and all kinds of groceries, etc., at strictly 10 per cent. profit. Give them a call and be convinced.

Prof. G. B. Likens has resigned his position at South Carrollton to accept a similar one at Alexandria, Tenn. Mr. Likens is one of our progressive young teachers, and is capable of conducting a first-class school. He will be succeeded at South Carrollton by Prof. G. D. Kittinger.

The class in English Literature and History gave the regular final entertainment in the College Hall Friday night. The exercises were of a high literary order and the orations well prepared and mastered. The class is in charge of Prof. J. W. Lytle, who is giving it some excellent drill and instruction.

The third term of Hartford College began Monday with a good attendance. The following students from a distance have been enrolled: Z. H. Shultz, J. C. Boswell, Sulphur Springs; A. M. Smith, Centerville; Annie Nell, South Carrollton; Nettie Rogers, Crownwell; Ed G. Barnes, Taylor Mines; May Ross, Lizzie Barnes, Goshen; Willie Cummins, Jack Cummins, Charles Cummins, Dunbarton; G. L. Westerfield, Eva Westerfield, Emmett Cook, Pleasant Ridge; J. H. Barnes, Darius Gentry, Prentice; B. D. Wigginton, I. S. Mason, Buford; G. H. Riggs, J. E. Smith, Glenville; Ella Herring, White Plains.

Mrs. Esther Maddox, widow of the late Josiah Maddox, died at the home of Mr. J. S. Maddox, near Rockport, Sunday night at 9 o'clock, of paralysis. She was sick only a day or two. Her remains were buried in the home cemetery. She was a sister of Mrs. Susan Rice, of Drakeboro.

G. W. Quinn & Co., of Morgantown, have assigned. Liabilities, about $27,000; assets not known. H. J. Young, of Rockport, was a member of the firm. The company, at the time of the assignment, owed the Morgantown Bank $12,000, Judge J. M. Foggy, $1,000 and other citizens of Morgantown $5,000. The remainder is owing eastern merchants. Cola Duncan was appointed as assignee.

Old Uncle Frank Duke, of color, died last Wednesday morning of inflammatory rheumatism. He has been making his home at Mr. Jas. Sullenger's, of this place, for the past 10 or 12 years. His remains were interred in the David Duke burying grounds on last Wednesday evening. Mr. Sullenger did all in his power to alleviate the sufferings of old Uncle Frank during his last illness, and finally when death came, gave him a decent burial.

Frank McKernan, of the Central Grove neighborhood, died at his home Thursday night, the 19th inst., of typhoid fever. His remains were buried at Walton's Creek cemetery Saturday. He was sick thirty-seven days. He was a consistent church member and a good citizen, husband and neighbor. He leaves a wife and three children, one an infant of two weeks old. His wife is very ill of pneumonia at Elijah Miller's, near town. His mother is also very ill of pneumonia at Thos. Williams'.

Will Reach Here To-day.

The surveyors of the Henderson State Line road are getting along well with their work. They were at Cadhoon Thursday last week. Monday night they had crossed the O. & N., and the party, it is expected, will reach Hartford to-day or to-morrow. They are meeting with hearty receptions and cheering acclamations all along the line, and will meet with no less from our people. Capt. A. B. Fitch, the chief engineer, is said to be highly pleased with the route so far.

A Veteran Ill.

C. Walter Miller, of Beaver Dam, has pneumonia. He was in the Southern Confederacy, going from Hartford to '61 with Dr. J. E. Pendleton. He was born in Denmark, and moved to this country several years before the war. He has had a bad attack but may recover.

The Sick.

Mr. Jesse Porter is ill.

E. T. Allen, Cevalvo, is ill.

Mrs. Mary Duncan, of McHenry, is ill.

P. M. Hoeker, of near town, is reported ill.

Miss Amanda Bennett, who has been ill, is some better.

Two of Monroe Brather's children, of Cevalvo, are ill of pneumonia.

Harrison Garrett, of Rockport, is ill of pneumonia. His recovery is doubtful.

H. P. Taylor, who has been ill of typhoid fever for the past three weeks, is no better.

Golda Moseley, daughter of deputy sheriff, J. S. Moseley, who has been ill of pneumonia for the past week, is improving.

Dentistry.

Dr. W. B. White, of Louisville, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Rhoads, of Drakeboro. Mr. Rhoads has been engaged in the ministry for several years, until right recently he was forced to abandon his profession on account of ill health.

The largest of the twin tunnels on the O. & N. road caved in Saturday night and trains were greatly delayed Sunday. When the passenger going north reached the place it had to stop and telegraph to Owensboro for a special train to take off the passengers and expressage.

MILLER'S DEFENSE.

A Worthy Young Man Defends Himself Against the Whisperings of a Social Scandal.

Last week The Ohio County Farmer gave publicity to a rumor that a young gentleman of Rosine and another from Prentice had become PARTISERS CRIMINIS in a social scandal, in which two young girls were likewise participants. No names were mentioned, but the manner of their designation was plain enough for the ordinary reader to understand to whom the reference was made. Mr. W. B. Miller, one of the young gentlemen in question, writes the following card of defense to the HERALD:

LOUISVILLE, KY., Jan. 17, 1891. EDITORS HERALD:—I was very much shocked to-day to receive a clipping from the pen of the sensational editor of the Ohio County Farmer and a couple of letters from friends in the vicinity in which they note the reports being circulated that I had "left for parts unknown" on account of a social scandal at Rosine.

For the benefit of those who do not know me, I will say that the report is false as Satan himself, and that I have no idea who the lady is who is connected with the rumor, but presume that she is as innocent as myself. Those who know me, and know how I have always conducted myself, of course, give no credence to the report. If any one in Ohio county wants me they can find me at 717 W. Market St., this city, or at 315 W. Main St., where I am at work.

Very truly,
W. B. MILLER.

Mr. Miller is well-known over the county, has always borne a pure and unimpeachable character. Those who know him will give his statements full and complete credence.

The other young gentleman whose name is being connected in a compromising way with one or two young ladies, has, so far as we know, made no public denial. If he is guilty, he deserves the severest condemnation society can place upon him. If he is innocent, in justice to himself and the young ladies, he should say so in a way that would still the tongues of gossip at once and forever.

John Love, who left a few days ago for Texas, writes us that he will probably return in a few weeks. Bud, his brother, has accepted a position as a local freight conductor.

Miss Cynthia Fortney, of the New Prospect vicinity, and Rufus Jernigan, of the Jernigan Chapel locality, were united in marriage yesterday evening at 2 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, W. H. Fortney. Rev. S. G. Shelly, of Greenville, performed the ceremony.

Rev. Patrick Rhoads, of Idaho, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Rhoads, of Drakeboro. Mr. Rhoads has been engaged in the ministry for several years, until right recently he was forced to abandon his profession on account of ill health.

The largest of the twin tunnels on the O. & N. road caved in Saturday night and trains were greatly delayed Sunday. When the passenger going north reached the place it had to stop and telegraph to Owensboro for a special train to take off the passengers and expressage.

To The Trade.

As is our usual custom, when the season begins to close, we mark our goods down, and give our customers the benefit of the reduction. We now offer our heavy BOOTS, OVERCOATS and LADIES' CLOAKS at greatly reduced prices for cash. We also have quite a line of genteel clothing, which we will sell almost at cost. Our underwear, too, must go, profit or no profit. Remember our stock is quite complete, and that we propose to sell as cheap as any other house. Remember, also, that we keep a good line of Furniture, Salt and Flour on hand at close prices. Our Groceries, too, are first class and very cheap. We have a hoghead N. O. Sugar, which we offer at 18 pounds for $1. Remember that, we take in exchange for goods all kinds of produce. Bring us your Eggs, Feathers, Chickens, &c., we will give you the highest market price. Parties knowing themselves indebted to us, will PLEASE call and settle by note or otherwise. Acknowledging our indebtedness to the trade for the liberal patronage given us, and hoping to merit a continuance of same, we are

Very respectfully and truly yours,
HOCKER & TABOR, Rosine, Ky.

Another Little Girl.

ROSE, KY.—I saw a letter from Miss Verdie Field in the HERALD, and I thought I would make an attempt to I am a little girl 9 years old. I have one brother, but no sisters. I have one doll. Its name is Edna Earl. I can sew and make my doll's clothes, but I take a greater delight in trying to cook. Miss Verdie said she had a malted cat. I would like very much to have one too. My mamma has been sick ever since November. I hope that none of you little girls have a sick mamma, if you do, you have my sympathy. We take the HERALD and like it very much. I hope this will be published, for this is my first attempt. Good wishes to the HERALD. I remain your little friend,
KATIE WATTS.

Master Commissioner's Sale of Valuable Lands.

OTIO CIRCUIT COURT.

Against
E. K. BARNARD, et al, Plaintiffs.

By virtue of a judgment and order of sale of the Ohio Circuit Court, rendered at the November term, 1890, in the above cause, I will offer for sale by public auction, at the court house door in Hartford, Kentucky, on Monday, 2d day of February, 1891, about 1 o'clock, p. m., upon a credit of six, twelve and eighteen months, the following described property, viz:

A tract of land containing 100 acres and bounded as follows:

Beginning at two hickories and a sweet gum, then south 136 poles to two white oaks and a hickory, then west 127 poles to two beeches, an ash and an elm, then north 120 poles to a beech, a poplar and two hickories, then east 127 poles to the beginning.

Also another tract of land containing 253 9-100 acres, which has been divided into three lots, as follows:

Lot No. 1.—Beginning on the north bank of Green river, just below the mouth of Coppens branch, then N. 89 E. 83 poles to a stake, then S. 14 E. 136 poles to a rock, a corner to the Tichenor 50-acre tract, then west 104 poles to Green river, then down Green river to the beginning, containing 58 79-100 acres.

Nor No. 2.—Beginning at a stake, corner to lot No. 1, then N. 89 E. 163 poles to two white oaks, then S. 1 E. 98 poles to a black gum, then S. 76 W. 132 poles to a rock, corner to lot No. 1, then with a line of lot No. 1, N. 14 W. 136 poles to the beginning, containing 106 95-100 acres.

Nor No. 3.—Beginning at a black gum, corner to lot No. 2, then S. 1 E. 104 poles to a gum and poplar, then S. 89 W. 30 poles to a black oak, then S. 1 E. 103 poles to a stake, Miller's line, then with Miller's line N. 38 W. 131 poles to Tichenor's line of the 50-acre tract, then with his line N. 54 E. 9 poles and 19 links to a stake, then N. 90 W. 74 poles to a rock, corner to lots one and two, then N. 76 E. 132 poles to the beginning, containing 87 35-100 acres.

I will first sell the three foregoing lots separately and then sell them altogether and will accept the best bid. The purchasers will be required to execute bond immediately after sale. All these lands lie in Ohio county, Ky. The 100 acres first described is the old Barnard homestead, with 65 acres in cultivation and the remainder well timbered, has good buildings and other improvements, is well watered and is regarded as a healthy location, and lies on the Hartford and South Carrollton road, near Equality church. The other lands lie on Green river and are well timbered and have fine coal.

For further particulars call on J. Perry Sanderfur, Hartford, Ky., John T. Withrow, E. K. Barnard, Smallhouse, Ky., or J. L. Barnard, Charleston, Mo.

OUR COUNTY SCHOOLS.

Their Condition as Reported by Superintendent Rogers.

HARTFORD COLLEGE.—PRIMARY DEPARTMENT.—MISS JOSIE DUKE, TEACHER.

JAN. 8, 1891.—Pupils enrolled, 74; present, 48. The usual number is about 60, but owing to a funeral in town, several pupils were absent. Miss Josie is about closing a very successful five month's work. The explanations for her arithmetic class were the best I ever heard by little folks. Several good reading lessons were recited. The Primary Department is under the care of an excellent teacher.

INTERMEDIATE DEPARTMENT.—MISS ADA BAIRD, TEACHER.

Pupils enrolled, 48; present 45. Owing to the lateness of the hour, no lessons were recited, but I remained long enough to know that the boys and girls are earnest and attentive. Miss Ada has among other good classes, an arithmetic class that is her special pride. She desires that the patrons of the school visit her Department and see what she is doing. Patrons, visit the place where your children are receiving such excellent training.

COLLEGIATE DEPARTMENT.

Failed to get the enrollment and attendance of this branch, but both are large. This has been a prosperous year for the college. The lessons heard recited in algebra and arithmetic in Prof. Alexander's room were spirited and full of interest.

Prof. Lytle has a good class in English History, composed principally of young ladies. The young ladies by mistake had studied the wrong lesson and a great part of the work fell upon Jacob's broad shoulders. The Chemistry class is full of life and interest. There are many other good classes I did not get to hear.

The first five months of the year are just closing with indications of marked success. Many noble and energetic young ladies and gentlemen of this county, of sister counties and of other States are here under the care of excellent teachers of the school. There is no better school in this part of the State than Hartford College, and the young people who are thinking of attending school this spring should remember this. It is to be hoped that the services of the able President will be secured for another term of years when his present contract expires. Hartford can't afford to let Wayland Alexander go from her doors without an effort. The classes are always full of interest and good work. The town and the county should alike be proud of this excellent institution of learning in their midst, and above all, should give it undivided patronage.

DISTRICT NO. 99, J. CAMPBELL, TEACHER.

Pupils present, 24; trustees present, Mr. Tom Sanders, Visitors, C. V. Christian, W. T. Sanders, J. W. Dandridge. Mr. Campbell has a good school here. The district is small, but the pupils are alive to their duty. Some good work in grammar was given by the young ladies. Some verses requiring thought were placed in neat diagrams on the board. Mr. Campbell uses Butler's system. The indications are that the present interest will continue throughout the school.
